Life in Athens Journal Entry

Imagine that you are a man, woman, child or slave living in Ancient Athens during the golden age. What is your daily life like? What do you do for a living? Where do you go for fun? You will write a journal entry in first person (as if you are the person) describing a day in your life as an Athenian.

Your journal entry must include 6 terms from the list below. You must underline the key terms.

I will be checking your spelling, grammar, and punctuation. You must begin by making either a brainstorming graphic organizer or writing a rough draft.

Use the following terms in your journal entry.

acropolis
agora
public fountain
slavery or slaves
Voting or democracy
Olympics
Religion
Philosophy Tragedy/comedy city-state geography
farmers/traders/sailors Golden Age
Parthenon
Meals
House/homes

This assignment will be worth 15 points and it will be graded using the following rubric:

Journal is in 1 st person (using I, me, my)	_____/2
A brainstorming OR rough draft is included	_____/2
Journal is at least one FULL page written	_____/2
Journal has no spelling, punctuation or grammar mistakes	_____/3
Journal contains the 6 terms in a way that makes sense (Don't just throw in words!)	_____/6
