

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Ancient Greece- Government

- During the Mycenaean era most city-states had _____ (kings ruled)
- Most famous monarchy- _____
- Sparta was ruled by 2 kings, 1 _____, 1 _____
- Eventually, monarchies were replaced by _____ (a group of aristocrats ruled)
- However, many common people were not happy with the rich ruling over everyone. Therefore, with the support of the middle class, _____ usually ended up taking over.
- Athens (one of the most famous Greek city-states) decided to create a new form of government known as a _____ (people voted on rulers and laws.)
- However, not everyone was allowed to vote. _____, _____, _____ and _____ were unable to participate in the voting process
- Council of 500- Each year, Athens selected 500 people to serve as _____ for one year.
- For every law that was created, _____ free man had to vote to put the law into action. Majority would win.
- Today we have a _____ _____ (we elect people to create and implement the laws)
- Our government is divided into three branches: