Home-School Connections

Daily 5:

We have been working hard practicing reading and building reading stamina to become independent readers. Research supports the more you practice an activity the better you are....that includes reading!

Ask your children about the 3 ways to read a book, how to choose a "Good Fit Book," and building reading stamina.

Throughout the year we will be adding to our menu of reading strategies.

Daily Reports:

Your child will receive a daily report to track behavior and homework. Please keep these reports in your child's folder until they expire.

Your child will receive a stamp if all the classroom rules are followed and they have turned in homework assignments. Please initial in the box under each day so we know you have seen the report.

Homework:

Your child will be assigned math homework daily, Monday-Thursday. Please check your child's work and return it to school the next day for credit. Additional assignments will also come home throughout the year. Please be sure to check your child's folder each day.
