LEDGER LINES

The image shows a grand staff with a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom. The treble staff has four ledger lines above it, and the bass staff has four ledger lines below it. Handwritten notes and arrows illustrate two types of scales:

- Forward through Alphabet: A green arrow points from the top ledger line to the first line of the treble staff. The notes are: D (top ledger), E (top ledger), F (top ledger), G (top ledger), A (first line), B (first space), C (second line), D (second space).
- Backwards through Alphabet: A blue arrow points from the first space of the bass staff to the bottom ledger line. The notes are: A (first space), G (first space), F (first space), E (first space), D (first space), C (bottom ledger), B (bottom ledger).

Additional handwritten notes include "Forward through Alphabet" in green and "Backwards through Alphabet" in blue, with arrows indicating the direction of the scales.
